Oh! Mauritius.....

Debasish Roy debates whether Mauritius is too hot to handle with all these Pantaloons Femina Miss India promotions and Air Mauritius flights coupled with the luxuries of the Shanti Ananda Maurice spa in this jewel of an island nation on the Indian Ocean. But then, he concludes it is worth giving it a whirl

Mauritius seems to be the right place for a young man with hormones. This island destination is attracting hordes of beauties and in good number too, by the looks of it.

ET Travel spoke about some Femina Miss India gracing the environs some time back. Now, it is a new list that has come by. The flora and fauna are a little dumbstruck to put it mildly.

Now who would not be? Anyone with a little manhood would retire screaming at the situation in this teeny weeny island on the Indian Ocean.

Recently, the island was inhabited by Pantaloons Femina Miss India Finalist 2007, Esha Gupta, Pantaloons Femina Miss India Finalist 2007, Nova Krishnan, Pantaloons Femina Miss India Finalist 2007, Shilpa Keswani, Pantaloons Femina Miss India World 2007, Sarah Jane Dias, Pantaloons Femina Miss India Universe 2007, Puja Gupta, and Pantaloons Femina Miss India Earth 2007 and Miss Earth Air 2007, Pooja Chitgopekar.

As far as getting there is concerned, Rajesh Busgheet, regional manager, Indian sub-continent and middle east, Air Mauritius said, "Air incorporated in June 1967, and started its operations to India for more than 25 years with a commitment of providing best of the services to our customers. Today, 40 years later, the national carrier of Mauritius flies directly to 25 destinations mainly to Europe, Asia, Africa and Regional islands. In Indian sub-continent it has six weekly flights mainly three to Mumbai, two to Delhi and one to Chennai."

Air Mauritius provides superb connectivity with Delhi to MRU on Thursdays and Sundays, Bombay to MRU on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and MAA to MRU on Tuesdays.

Besides the ladies there is Shanti Ananda Maurice, spread over 35 acres, with breathtaking views of the hills and the Indian Ocean with its coral reefs.
